

Direct Network managing Pieces of History list

By Giselle Abramovich
May 17th, 2007

Direct Network Inc., New Brunswick, NJ, is managing the Pieces of Military History Memorabilia list.

Pieces of History is a leading supplier of military medals, books and videos.

Pieces of History serves a passionate audience of history buffs who are so passionate that many pay hundreds of dollars for that rare medal they've long been searching for, which just appeared in a Pieces of History catalog.

The file comprises 111,241 individuals at a base price of $100.00/M.

Their interests span the globe to include all countries involved in military conflicts throughout history. Such literary men with a strong sense of patriotism and a long history of purchasing collectibles are a rare find. Use them for political and conservative fundraisers, men's magazines, collectibles, books and apparel.

Giselle Abramovich is a former Associate Editor at DM News.